2007 LICENCE FEES:

25 of the 26 registered associations for fishing and the protection of aquatic environments (AAPPMA) of Manche grant mutual fishing rights to holders of an annual licence costing €68 in 2006 (fish-farming tax included).

The AAPPMA of Gouville-sur-Mer does not subscribe to this mutual fishing right.

Manche's fishing federation subscribes to the West of France fishing agreement (EHGO)

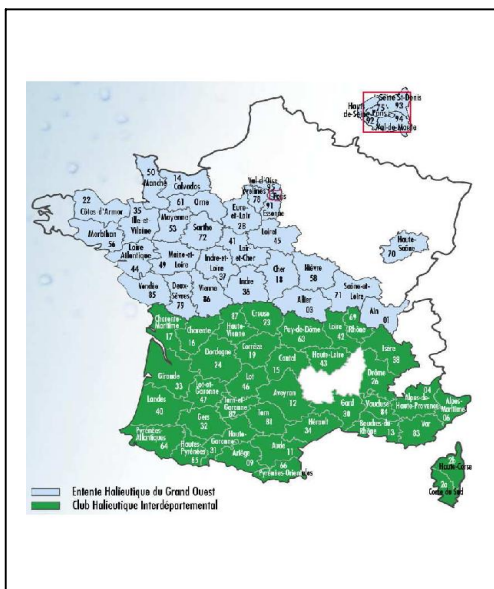

Subscription to the agreement costs €16.50. The EHGO stamp is affixed to the local fishing licence. The holder is then allowed to fish in all areas where the AAPPMA is affiliated to the agreement through its local federation.

Possessors of a junior fishing licence or a holiday licence enjoy the same rights without having to purchase the EHGO label.

ADULT fishing licence : for persons aged 18 years and over on the 1st January 2007 (born prior to 1989).

The licence is valid from the 1st January to the 31st December 2007, for categories 1 and 2, and for all fishing methods.

JUNIOR fishing licence : for youths under 18 years on the 1st February 2007 (born between 1989 and 1997). The licence is valid from the 1st January to the 31st December 2007, for categories 1

BEGINNER fishing licence : for children born after 1997. The licence is valid from the 1st January to the 31st December 2007, for categories 1 and 2, for all fishing methods, and for one single line. It is valid for all participating AAPPMA areas.

HOLIDAY fishing licence : for holiday-makers who do not have a valid fishing licence. This licence is valid from the 1st June to the 31st December 2007, for categories 1 and 2, for all fishing methods, and for a period of two weeks.

It may be renewed and completed with a "migrant tax".

DAY fishing licence : for occasional fishermen. This day licence is valid from the 1st June to the 31st December 2007, for categories 1 and 2, and for all fishing methods. It is only valid for the AAPPMA area in which it was issued.
